

Mark Johnson, National Customs and Trade Compliance Director, Kuehne + Nagel UK Ltd

Mark is the National Customs and Trade Compliance Director for Kuehne + Nagel UK Ltd and has been since February 2018.

Mark has spent some 40 years in the logistics industry, joining it via a dedicated Customs role that took him through the process of joining Single Market back in January 1993. His progression in this industry saw him spend a period of time working in the United States of America but prior to his current role, Mark spent 10 years as Kuehne + Nagel UK National Operations Director, responsible for all KNUK Branches that handles International Freight operationally, which equated to 65% of the UK contribution in EBIT.

In his current role, he is responsible for SMART lean effective management of the Customs and Trade Compliance business in KNUK, regardless of mode.

Mark remit will also include the roll-out of Brexit within Kuehne + Nagel, covering Customers, Technology and People to ensure a smooth transition.
